I tried to enroll at this daycare center but they had a waiting list. Ended up finding a spot in Newark and I've been really pleased with my choice.

The Teachers at this Day Care Center are TOP-NOTCH, I couldn't be happier with our decision to enroll my son here. It has made such a positive impact on him, he's been attending for nearly 2 years now. Highly recommend!

I recently enrolled my son at this day care center and I must say it has been a splendid decision! Being a first-time mother, you can imagine the constant stress and worry about my child. I was quite apprehensive about finding a daycare as I felt nobody would understand my concerns. However, from the first moment I contacted the daycare, I felt at ease and welcomed. It's been a great experience so far!

This daycare center is absolutely brilliant! I'm so impressed with how quickly my little ones are learning. They can't wait to go every day to play with their friends and learn from the caring teachers. The head of the center is always around and easy to talk to. I would 100% suggest this daycare to anyone looking for a top-notch educational experience for their children.

Before relocating to Virginia, our young son attended the Bear center from the tender age of 4 months, and he will soon be turning 3 this Spring. We were thrilled that we chose Lil' Einstein's as our child's daycare. The teachers were incredibly attentive to our son's needs and have truly become like an extension of our family. We simply cannot sing enough praises about this center and firmly believe that the investment is absolutely worth it. It was truly heart-wrenching to bid farewell to Lil' Einstein's when we made the move to Virginia.

My nephew is enrolled at Lil' Einstein's. I must say, I am quite pleased with his progress since he started attending the center. The staff and teachers at Bear center are truly supportive and caring towards him. He constantly raves about his buddies and the exciting activities they engage in at the center. I am thoroughly satisfied and would highly recommend Lil' Einstein's!

I was absolutely terrified to enroll my little one in a daycare setting as she had been under my care for the initial 10 months of her life. After thorough research, I opted for LELA due to the glowing recommendations and engaging curriculum, and let me tell you, they exceeded all expectations! Witnessing my once clingy and reserved baby flourish into a confident, joyful, and eager toddler was truly remarkable. The teachers at LELA are simply fantastic, displaying genuine care and involvement with the children. The cherry on top? Regular updates in the form of pictures and videos throughout the day, which never fail to brighten my day. I wholeheartedly endorse LELA – they are top-notch!

My apologies for the upsetting incident that occurred at the daycare center my grandson attends. We recently experienced a concerning situation where my grandson began bedwetting during his naps, leading to conflicting advice from staff members. While one student aide suggested it was acceptable to provide pull-ups for him, his teacher, Ms. Katie, expressed disapproval of this approach. In fact, she reportedly conveyed to the aide her frustration with changing my grandson's clothes and even threatened to leave him in soiled attire if the issue recurred.

It is disheartening to witness such behavior from an individual tasked with the care and education of young children. Following a discussion with Ms. Dawn, who attempted to rationalize the teacher's actions, we have noticed a marked change in the demeanor of the staff towards us. Their cold and dismissive attitude, particularly from Ms. Dawn, is unprofessional and does not reflect the welcoming environment one expects from a childcare facility.

Subsequent interactions have only reinforced our decision to withdraw our grandson from the daycare center. I am deeply disappointed by the handling of the situation, and I feel compelled to share my experience with others to caution against entrusting their children to such an establishment. Should you wish to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to reach out to me. Ms. Dawn is aware of the incident, which transpired only a few days ago, and we no longer see the student aide present. It is saddening to speculate that she may have faced repercussions for advocating on behalf of my grandson.

My little ones go to this nursery. The team is always welcoming and knowledgeable, ready to address any queries I may have. I've had a fantastic encounter with them and have suggested them to my colleagues. The premises are consistently well-lit and spotless, with secure entryways that give me peace of mind when leaving my children in their charge. Thanks a lot for taking such good care of my kids!

We've recently enrolled our son at this day care center. It came highly recommended by a few friends, and we are delighted with our decision. Transitioning from four years of being at home with us was initially challenging for both our son and us as parents, but the staff has been incredible in helping us through this process. Our son is now thriving at the center, and I am particularly grateful for his wonderful teachers, Miss Alyssa and Miss Katie. They always make time to keep us informed about his day, and their classroom is beautifully decorated with engaging instructional materials for the children. The center's flexible hours have been a lifesaver for our busy schedules. This is our third child, but the first one to attend preschool, and we couldn't be happier with the caring staff, nurturing environment, and our choice to send him here.

I'm not usually one for leaving feedback, but I simply had to share about the fantastic experience my girls have had at this day care center. My little ones have been attending for nearly three years now. The youngest started in the infant room at just 8 weeks old, while the older one began in the before and after care program and also enjoys the summer camp - so I've had the pleasure of getting to know almost every aspect of the center. The professionalism of the staff is truly commendable. They are incredibly approachable, address any concerns promptly, and are always transparent about what happens during the day. They welcome feedback and take it on board graciously. The atmosphere is so inviting and cozy, you can sense that everyone genuinely cares. The center director has been absolutely fantastic in addressing any issues I've raised and diligently working with me until everything was resolved. It's hard to find a daycare where you feel comfortable leaving your child for long hours every day, but I have complete peace of mind here and plan to continue using their services for as long as possible.

We've just enrolled our little one for this year. A few pals highly recommended the center. It took some getting used to for us parents, but the team did a smashing job at smoothing the transition for all. After spending the past four years at home with us, my son is absolutely flourishing at the center, and I adore his teachers. Despite their busy schedules, Miss Alyssa and Miss Katie always manage to keep us in the loop about his day. They also provide top-notch teaching resources and a classroom designed specifically for young ones. Fabulous hours that suit a variety of schedules. Honestly, I feel a tad guilty because even though this is my third child, he will be the first to experience preschool.

I must say, I had a rather unsettling feeling about this establishment and decided to withdraw my child after just 2 days. We visited 4 different care centers before selecting this one, and each time my little one was brimming with excitement. Every time we tried to leave, she threw a huge tantrum as she wanted to stay with the other children. Initially, she was thrilled during the first and second day at this center. However, on the second day when I came to pick her up, she immediately ran to me and expressed being "scared," refusing to be put down. Before entering the classroom during nap time on her second day, I overheard a cafeteria worker speaking in a manner that seemed inappropriate to me. Moreover, I saw her lifting a child by one arm from their mat upon entering the room. The next day when I attempted to bring my child back, she clung onto me tightly and cried, unlike the previous days where she ran off without a care. Additionally, there were no updates provided throughout the day via the Procare app as promised when I enrolled her. This included information on her meals, diaper changes, pictures, nap times, duration of sleep, and other essential details. The teacher-to-child ratio also appeared to be imbalanced; on her first day, it seemed there was only one teacher managing what seemed like too many children, in my opinion. When I went to collect her belongings two months later, everything was correctly labeled and packed in a backpack as per their policy. However, we noticed that her new sippy cup and extra tights were missing.
